

Dear friends in Christ,

As I write this bulletin article, it is May 1, the Feast of St. Joseph the Worker. I can think of no better saint to thank for the gift of all who worked so diligently last weekend to make our 22nd Annual CtR Spring Festival a grand success. The Church commemorates the dignity of human labor on this feast day, and so it is only right that we thank all who labored (without compensation, mind you) so that we might enjoy the blessing of such a great event.

Wow! What another great year! Where to begin? First, my thanks to all of you who came out in support of the festival. To all who bought raffle tickets, brisket dinners, funnel cakes, beers, rides and games, and yes, even those darn confetti eggs, thank you very much! In doing so, you were doing your part to make the day a success. Thank you very much for your continued support, year in and year out. For all our auction bidders and buyers, booth workers, cooks, ticket sellers, bingo players and everyone in between, thank you very much. The festival is for the community, and it is the community that makes it what it is.

That said, it of course takes people behind the scenes to make everything run so smoothly and for that we have to start with our general chairpersons, Mike and Camille Havelka. Folks, where would we be without them? We cannot thank them enough. As I was walking the grounds, meeting and greeting visitors, I constantly ran across Mike, who was working like the Energizer Bunny to see that everything was in order. Camille was in the back room, overseeing the money and tickets. It is hard to describe to you the time and effort this couple (and their two children) put in to the festival each year. Far be it from me to tell you what to do, but you absolutely must say a prayer of thanks for the gift that the Havelkas are to CtR.

But let's not stop the heavenly "thank yous" with them. We are also indebted to the work of the entire festival committee. They've been working since early in the year (or really, since the end of last year's festival) to plan and organize every detail. What we all enjoyed last weekend didn't happen without real sacrifice on their part. We thank Rose Gorney and Debbie Ellison (and their families) for the great food, Tony & Beckie Croes for the auction (another knockout year in that department!), Dave & Dianna Perham, Lynne & Rick Boehm, Rick & Nadia Matt, Paul & Jonna Prodoehl, John & Mary Phillips and Mike & Peggy Bell. There are certainly others (Tim King and Anheuser-Busch for the beer) to thank as well and if I am forgetting anyone, please accept my apologies.

Why do these people do what they do? What drives a person to want to give back so much? In speaking with our volunteers, I am led to believe it is a love of Church, the love of community, and the love of service to the greater good. That's why they do what they do. And is that not the model of our Lord, Jesus Christ? So to everyone who gave of themselves so that we all might benefit, thank you very much and may God continue to bless you in your service to the Church.

The final totals from the festival will be announced at Mass in a few weeks, and while the money raised is a wonderful gift to our coffers (and will go a long way to building the new church!), the much greater impact is what the festival does for the unity of our parish. Everyone who attends and everyone who volunteers at the festival is a blessing to us. That's not something that can be measured in dollars and cents, but only in the grace of God. And that, my friends, is worth more than anything in the world.

With the festival behind us and the month of May upon us, we've got several events to keep us busy. May is a month traditionally set aside to honor the Virgin Mary so I ask you to keep that close to your heart in prayer. It is also a time we might ask for the Virgin's intercession for the gift of life. Let us honor the sacredness of life in all we do and say. At CtR we are in need of a chairperson to step forward to lead our Respect Life Committee. I ask that you pray this month and ask the Lord if this is an area where you might be of service to God's Church. It is a vital aspect of our ministry and we are in need of a leader to take it over. Please let me know if you are interested, but do take it to your prayer first.

Next weekend we will celebrate not only Mother's Day, but also First Holy Communion for more than 250 of our children. Once again, because of the great size of our classes, we will have two First Communion masses next Saturday. Please keep our 2nd graders in prayer as they prepare to receive the Lord for the first time in Holy Communion. And also pray for our high school students who will be confirmed at the end of the month.

One thing we will not have this month is our parish mission. We've pushed that back to September to coincide with the building project of the new church which will be well underway at that time. Watch for more details to come later on that great event.

Finally, remember that registration is underway for Religious Education classes for next year. As the school year begins to wind down, why not get the jump start by completing the registration forms for the kids for next year? You can find all the available materials in the church office.

Peace, Fr. Sean

Stewardship Corner

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives His disciples – and us – a new commandment: "Love one another". Good stewards who spend their time and talents in service to others are well on their way to fulfilling this commandment.

LITURGY CORNER

Fifth Sunday of Easter

Singing Our Praise

An extremely important element of our Catholic worship is that of sung prayer. There is an adage that speaks of the role of song in our liturgies; it talks of us singing the Mass, not just singing at Mass. The revised General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) of 2002 reminds us of Paul's instruction to the early Church "to sing together psalms, hymns and spiritual songs" (see Colossians 3:16), as well as citing Augustine's wonderful assertion that "singing is for one who loves," and the proverb "one who sings well prays twice" (GIRM, 39).

Easter is a most appropriate season for singing God's praises! Alleluia is, first and foremost, a song of praise to the Lord.

The refrain of Psalm 118, one of the seasonal psalms of Easter, reminds us that "This is the day that the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad!" Our rejoicing, in the light of the Resurrection, is made most manifest when we raise our voices together in song. On these Sundays of Easter, the celebration of the Eucharist calls us at various times to do just this! In the Opening Song, in the Blessing and Sprinkling with Holy Water, in the singing of the Gloria, during the responsorial psalm, in the responses of the Eucharistic Prayer, in praying the Lord's Prayer, and during the Communion Procession are the primary places where we can celebrate the joy of Easter by singing our prayer of praise to God.

In this season of the Resurrection, let us raise our voices and worship the Lord with gladness. Let us come before him with joyful songs (see Psalm 100:2)!
